Spent my life, and continuing on the path of learning and self-development. I believe in giving is one of the greatest attributes in life and for this I love to share my experience and hope it would be of benefit to others around the world. Originally from Kuwait, I have spent over 30 years in the corporate world spanning from to Kuwait, Singapore, Turkey, Tunisia, Morocco in senior and leadership positions and as a certified CTI coach, an ORSC coach, Master's degree in leadership — I am dedicated to helping others in re-discovering themselves and equipping them with the right tools and mindset to live a fulfilling life – holistically.

Fawzi K Al Musallam

A certified CTI life coach and an ORSC coach.

Have worked in many organizations in the MENA region in senior and leadership position.

In my journey I have witnessed personally the challenges I and others face to enjoy and live a meaningful life. The search continues to find this quality of life outside, where in reality it exists deep inside each one of us. to reach it we need assistance, guidance, a commitment and a choice to make the shift. As the famous quote goes "When the student is ready the teacher appears".

I am an internationally certified Business & Life Passion Coach with a background in Engineering, planning, strategy, team building and conflict resolution. I am passionate specialize in helping people just like you overcome the obstacles keeping them from accomplishing their goals and dreams. Every successful goal achievement plan requires clear focus, burning motivation and effective action steps to reach the goal.

Coaching is at the very heart of my life. I am passionate about what I do. I have always worked with high achievers, because I know what it is to be a high performer. I also know what the associated high performing challenges, fears and pains are. No matter how successful we are in our professional or private lives, sometimes we just get stuck, stressed or even burnt out.

Fawzi's Expertise

LEADERSHIP is not a POSITION

Over 30 years of Leadership in different organization in more than 7 countries in the MENA region.
